New Zoning By-Law passes second and third reading

The new Zoning By-Law, developed by the RM and MRA Planning + Development, passed second and third reading at the Sept. 28 Council Meeting.

This is the first Zoning By-Law update since 2003 and is the result of three years of research, writing, and extensive stakeholder and community consultation.

Taxes now overdue; penalties apply

2026 Property Taxes were due Sept. 11. As of Oct. 1, penalties of 1.25 per cent per month apply. If you haven't paid your Property Tax bill yet, ensure you do so as soon as possible to avoid further penalties.

Congratulations to our RM of Lac du Bonnet staff members for completing the CMMA program!

Please join us in congratulating our Senior Clerk and our Planning Assistant for their successful completion of the Manitoba Municipal Administrators Certificate program, a designation which reflects and commitment to professional growth, municipal leadership, and excellence in public service! They received their certificates at last month's MMA Conference & AGM!

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree... where can we find thee?

We are seeking our next community Christmas tree, which will be lit up and stand at the Town of Lac du Bonnet dock over the holiday season.
